

U.S. Global Health Budget: Maternal & Child Health (MCH)

The U.S. has been involved in Maternal & Child Health (MCH) efforts since the 1960s (and is the largest donor government to MCH activities in the world). MCH funding, which includes funding for polio and U.S. contributions to Gavi, the Vaccine Alliance (GAVI) and the United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF), is provided through the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and the State Department. U.S. funding for MCH increased from $728 million in FY 2006 to $1.2 billion in FY 2018, its highest level to date. This was primarily driven by increased funding to GAVI and polio during the period. In fact, when these are removed, bilateral MCH funding has remained relatively level for several years over the period. In FY 2018, MCH accounted for the third largest share of U.S. funding for global health (12%). The President’s FY 2019 request proposes $897 million for MCH, a cut of $350 million (-28%) below the FY 2018 level, which would bring funding down to FY 2010 levels.
