Table 9 Notes

1. N/A responses indicate that the state does not have an online account.

2. In California, individuals can apply for MAGI-Medicaid only through the CALHEERS online application and user account, which are mobile-friendly.

3. Indiana added functionality for individuals to apply through a mobile device in 2018.

5. New Jersey added functionality for individuals to access the online account through a mobile device and to provide a mobile-friendly design for the account in 2018.

6. In 2018, Tennessee launched an online application with its new eligibility system. Individuals can apply using a mobile device. It is available in select counties on a pilot basis as of January 2019 and is expected to be expanded statewide in Spring 2019.

7. Wisconsin launched an “app” for individuals to apply and to access their online account. Wisconsin’s Medicaid account “app” has more limited features than the web-based online account. It allows individuals to check benefits, get reminders of actions needed, and submit documents.
