

UNINSURED ADULTS IN OKLAHOMA WHO WOULD BECOME ELIGIBLE FOR MEDICAID UNDER EXPANSION

The ACA expanded Medicaid coverage to nearly all adults with incomes up to 138% of the Federal Poverty Level ($17,236 for an individual in 2019). If Oklahoma were to expand its Medicaid program, 196,000 uninsured nonelderly adults would become eligible for coverage, 43% of the state's uninsured nonelderly adult population.

77% of those who would become eligible under Medicaid expansion are childless adults, a group historically excluded from Medicaid eligibility.

Who Are Uninsured Adults Who Would Become Eligible for Medicaid if Oklahoma Expanded?

Over 7 in 10 are in a family with at least one worker.

Nearly 6 in 10 are adults living below poverty.

More than half are White, non-Hispanic.

Almost 4 in 10 are middle-aged and 17% are near-elderly, who are more likely to have substantial health needs.

96,000 women

Nearly half are women even though many women qualify for Medicaid as caregiver parents.

Where Do Uninsured Adults Who Would Be Eligible for Medicaid if Oklahoma Expanded Live?

What is the Potential Impact of Medicaid Expansion?

How Would the Medicaid Expansion in Oklahoma be Financed?

The federal government pays most of the cost of the ACA Medicaid expansion: 90% in FY 2020 and beyond.

For traditional Medicaid, the federal share of cost is lower (66%) in FY 2020 and changes slightly each year depending on the state's per capita income.
