

NEW ORLEANS TEN YEARS AFTER THE STORM

AFRICAN AMERICANS AND WHITES LIVE DIFFERING REALITIES

● African American New Orleans Residents

● White New Orleans Residents

0% 100%

New Orleans has mostly recovered from Hurricane Katrina

44% 70%

Now is a good time for children to be growing up in New Orleans

37% 70%

New Orleans provides young people with good or excellent career opportunities

35% 66%

Rebuilding efforts have done a lot or some to help "people like you"

53% 67%

Neighborhood has enough places where children can play outside

36% 63%

Neighborhood does not have a problem with abandoned and destroyed buildings

37% 52%

Neighborhood has enough police presence

39% 52%

Can trust the police most of the time or almost always to do what is right for your community

42% 59%

Health needs are being met very well today

50% 66%

A lot of progress has been made in making public transportation more available

22% 45%

Rely on public transportation

16% 34%

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation/NPR Survey of New Orleans Residents Ten Years After Katrina